1. The CHAIRMAN said that the Moroccan, Norwegian and Swedish delegations had joined the sponsors of the draft.

2. Draft resolution A/C.6/48/L.11 was adopted without a vote.

3. Mrs. VALDES (Cuba), explaining her delegation's position, said that its decision to join the consensus on the resolution just adopted in no way prejudged the position that Cuba would take when the draft statute for an international criminal court that was to be elaborated by the International Law Commission was submitted to the Committee for adoption.

4. The CHAIRMAN said that the Committee had thus completed consideration of agenda item 143.

AGENDA ITEM 141: PROGRESSIVE DEVELOPMENT OF THE PRINCIPLES AND NORMS OF INTERNATIONAL LAW RELATING TO THE NEW INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC ORDER (continued) (A/C.6/48/L.13)

Draft decision A/C.6/48/L.19

11. Mr. HAYES (Ireland) said that, since the draft under consideration was the outcome of extensive consultations, he hoped that the Committee could adopt it by consensus.

12. Miss DAUCHY (Secretary of the Committee) said that, in preparing the report provided for under paragraph (a) of the draft, the Secretary-General would take into account the views expressed by delegations at the forty-eighth session of the General Assembly. He would also take into account the views of staff representatives, whom he would consult as provided for under staff regulation 8.1.

13. The CHAIRMAN said that she would take it that the Committee wished to act on the draft, even though it had been circulated only a few hours earlier in official form.

14. It was so decided.

invitation to the Special Committee to initiate a review of its membership - he suggested that the Sixth Committee should adopt the draft without a vote.

21. Miss DAUCHY (Secretary of the Committee) said that adoption of the draft would not have any implications for the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1994-1995, since the necessary resources had already been included in section 7, subprogramme 3.

Moreover, as in its 1993 report, in its next report ICRC should put forward suggestions as to questions to be considered by the Sixth Committee.

31. Mr. ROSENSTOCK (United States of America) said that, whatever the unilateral interpretations of some delegations might be in that connection, the procedures to be followed were set out clearly in the draft resolution and must be adhered to.
